

Nutfield Church (C of E) Primary School

Anti-Bullying Policy

Nutfield Church (C of E) Primary School Mission:

- We are a church school, which believes in the importance of community, where people from all races, religions and cultures act in peace together.
- Our pupils, staff and families work together as a team, with wisdom supporting each other through our learning. We have hope in our challenges and in our successes.
- We recognise the dignity and ultimate worth of each person created in the image of God, further shaped by the person, teaching and example of Jesus. We look to the future with joy.

Policy Reviewed: January 2018

Next Review: January 2019

At Nutfield Church (C of E) Primary School we aim to provide a safe, caring and friendly environment for all our pupils to allow them to learn effectively, improve their life chances and help them maximise their potential.

This policy focuses on pupils and is part of our whole school development and improvement plan. This policy is to be read in conjunction with our SEN, complaints, equality, behaviour, whistle blowing and staff conduct policies and documents.

We would expect pupils to feel safe in school, including that they understand the issues relating to safety, such as bullying and that they feel confident to seek support from school should they feel unsafe.

Policy Development

This policy was formulated in consultation with the whole school community with input from members of staff, governors, parents/carers, children, and Wrap Around (Turtles Club) and is available on our school website and learning platform.

Pupils contribute to the development of the policy through the school council, class discussions, Anti-Bullying week, etc.

The School Council have developed a child friendly version of actions you can take if you think you or someone else is being bullied which is displayed in classrooms, the playground and around the main parts of the school.

Parents/Carers are encouraged to contribute by: taking part in written consultations, parent meetings, parent forums,

Parents and pupils are encouraged to sign the home/school agreement which states expectations of behaviour and keeping safe from bullying.

Roles and Responsibilities

The Headteacher – Has overall responsibility for the policy and its implementation and liaising with the governing body, parents/carers, LA and outside agencies and appointing an Anti-Bullying Coordinator who will have general responsibility for handling the implementation of this policy.

The Headteacher's responsibilities' are:-

- Managing bullying incidents
- Managing the reporting and recording of bullying incidents

The Headteacher as DSL and her DDSL team oversee incidents of bullying and communicate all 'record of concerns' in monthly meetings. The data gathered informs staff. In addition a pastoral file is maintained which records all concerns from children, parents and staff. This file is shared at weekly staff and TA meetings.

The nominated Governor with the responsibility for Anti-Bullying (Behaviour) is Diane Martin.

The Anti –Bullying Coordinator in our school is Anna Morris.

The Coordinator's responsibilities are:-

- Policy development and review involving pupils, staff, governors and parents/carers.
- Implementing the policy and monitoring and assessing its effectiveness in practice
- Ensuring evaluation takes place and that this informs policy review
- Assessing and coordinating training and support for staff and parents/carers where appropriate
- Coordinating strategies for preventing bullying behaviour
- Monitoring, in conjunction with the Learning Mentor, pupil notes deposited in the worry box

All staff at this school have a responsibility to model respectful behaviours both towards pupils and towards other adults.

Definition of Bullying

'Behaviour by an individual or group usually repeated over time, that intentionally hurts another individual or group either physically or emotionally'.

Safe to Learn: embedding anti bullying work in schools (2007)

How does bullying differ from teasing/falling out between friends or other types of aggressive behaviour?

- There is a deliberate intention to hurt or humiliate.
- There is a power imbalance that makes it hard for the victim to defend themselves.
- It is usually persistent.

Occasionally an incident may be deemed to be bullying even if the behaviour has not been repeated or persistent – if it fulfils all other descriptions of bullying. This possibility should be considered, particularly in cases of sexual, sexist, racist, homophobic or transgender bullying and when children with disabilities are involved. If the victim might be in danger then intervention is urgently required.

■ Bullying around racism, religion and culture

'Every child deserves respect and a safe learning environment whatever their racial or religious background and every child needs to learn that modern British society values diversity and mutual respect.'

■ Homophobic bullying

Homophobic bullying occurs when bullying is motivated by a prejudice against lesbian, gay or bisexual people.

■ Cyberbullying

Cyberbullying is the use of Information and Communications Technology (ICT), particularly mobile phones and the internet, deliberately to upset someone else.

■ Bullying involving Children with Special Educational Needs (SEN) and Disabilities

Children with SEN and disabilities may be adversely affected by negative attitudes to disability and perceptions of difference. They may find it more difficult to resist bullies, not understand that what is happening is bullying and have difficulties telling people about bullying.

■ Sexist, sexual and transphobic bullying

Sexist bullying is based on sexist attitudes that when expressed demean, intimidate or harm another person because of their sex or gender. Sexual bullying is bullying behaviour that has a specific sexual dimension and may involve suggestive sexual comments. Transphobic bullying stems from a hatred or fear of people who are 'transgender', which describes people whose sense of their gender or gender identity is seen as being different to typical gender norms.

What does bullying look like?

Bullying can include:

- physical bullying (e.g. hitting, pushing, unwanted physical contact)
- direct verbal bullying – (name calling or sarcasm, including comments related to race, disability, sexual orientation, gender, etc)
- derogatory and discriminatory language
- relational bullying
- bullying related to special educational needs or disabilities
- taunting
- mocking
- making offensive comments
- taking or damaging belongings
- cyber bullying – the use of information and communication technology, particularly mobile phones and the internet, deliberately to upset someone else.
- producing offensive graffiti

- gossiping and spreading hurtful and untruthful rumours
- excluding people from groups.
- sexist / transgender / homophobic bullying
- bullying related to race, religion or culture.
- bullying of young carers or looked after children or otherwise related to home circumstances

Although bullying can occur between individuals it can often take place in the presence (virtually or physically) of others who become the 'bystanders' or 'accessories'.

There is no hierarchy of bullying – all forms should be taken equally seriously and dealt with appropriately.

Bullying can take place between:

- young people
- young people and staff
- between staff
- individuals or groups

Reporting and Responding to Bullying

Point of contact: Class teacher or Headteacher.

Our school has a clear and well publicized system to report bullying for the whole school community (including staff, parents/carers and, children). This includes those who are the victims of bullying or have witnessed bullying behaviour (bystanders).

Pupils are consulted during Anti-Bullying week as to the actions that they could take if they felt they or someone else was being bullied. A collective worship by the School Council resulted in the following actions being agreed by all pupils and displayed across the school. Other stakeholders were consulted on their views. Awareness of Cyber-bullying is taught in the curriculum through e-safety and can also be reported in school using any of the systems outlined below.

If you see someone being bullied you could:-

- Find a friend and talk to them about what is happening and what you should do
- Remind the children involved of the school rules
- Tell a grown-up – you could report this to someone who works in the school who would do something about it or an adult in your family
- Write a note for the talktime box

If you are being bullied you could:-

- Find a friend and ask them to help you.
- Remind the children involved of the school rules
- Tell a grown-up – you could report this to someone who works in the school who would do something about it or an adult in your family
- Write a note for the talk time box

If your child is being bullied you could:-

- Talk to your child and record what they say
- inform the class teacher
- Arrange an appointment to see the class teacher
- Maintain a regular time to see the class teacher until the matter is resolved

Communication

The Headteacher communicates incidents of behaviour in the termly Headteacher's report, in school action groups for parents and carers, through weekly staff meetings and with the DSL team. The Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher maintain an ongoing update of policy which is particularly affected by changing legislation, parent view and comments and school council input. This year a particular focus will be on developing dialogue with parents and the wider school community through expanding the Anti-Bullying team. We welcome parents' comments and feedback at all times regarding the behaviour and welfare of our pupils.

Complaints

Any staff member or parent who feels that an incident has not been dealt with to their satisfaction is encouraged at all times to discuss this with senior leaders and Governors. Should their complaint not be addressed they are directed to follow the procedures set out in the Complaints Policy. The school will deal promptly with complaints in line with the complaints procedure.

Using a Restorative Approach

This school promotes responsible behaviour and deals effectively and fairly with all pupils.

It involves expectations, agreed and understood by all, and consists of four distinct parts:-

- i) A concise list of rules for all pupils to follow
- ii) A systematic approach to positive recognition of good behaviour
- iii) A graded list of the consequences of failing to keep the rules.
- iv) A plan that seeks forgiveness and restoration

The five themes of the restorative approach will be followed:-

Theme 1 & 2 – What's happened/what is the matter? What were you thinking/feeling? (Each child)

Theme 3 – Anything to add? Who has been affected?

Theme 4 – What do you need so things can be put right/to move on?

Theme 5 – What can you do to stop this from happening again?

Repeated incidents action plan

In the highly unusual event that bullying incidents persist after initial intervention from staff, involvement with parents and use of restorative approach the Headteacher, senior leaders and Governors will contact the LA. Suspensions and even exclusions are possible at this stage. It should be noted that the school's ethos does not reflect these actions and would only be used in a last case scenario.

Procedures

All reported incidents will be taken seriously and investigated involving all parties. Our school will:-

- First report of bullying - Interview all parties, either separately or together. This will be decided by the victim. The children involved will be invited to bring a staff member to support them.
- Repeated report of bullying by the same perpetrator – A restorative meeting with all involved parties with the staff member supporting them. Parents will be informed.
- A third report will culminate in a restorative meeting with parents involved.

During these meetings a decision will be made on the consequences and school sanctions agreed. These will follow the appropriate response to the situation: - solution focused, restorative approach, circle of friends, individual work with victim, perpetrator, referral to outside agencies if appropriate. Support will be provided for both the victim and the bully and followed up by a member of the leadership team with feedback to the person who reported the situation and parents/carers

For children who consistently require corrective actions, the following should occur in order:

1. Reduce the number of corrective actions
2. Have an individual behaviour plan negotiated with parents
3. Involve the SENCO in developing a further behaviour plan with parents
4. Involve outside agencies in a Pastoral Support Plan
5. Temporary exclusion
6. Fixed term or permanent Exclusion.

Recording Bullying and Evaluating the Policy

Bullying incidents will be recorded by the member of staff who deals with the incident and this will be reviewed by the Anti-bullying coordinators and stored in the Headteacher's office. The information stored will be used to ensure individual incidents are followed up. It will also be used to identify trends and inform preventative work in school and development of the policy.

This information will be presented to the governors as part of the Headteacher's report.

The policy will be reviewed and updated every year. All incidents of bullying will be recorded on record of concern forms. A copy is kept in the Headteacher's office in the green bullying incident record of concern file and all DSL's (Designated Safeguarding Leads) and Deputy DSL's (Deputy Designated Safeguarding Leads), teaching and non-teaching staff will be informed through the pastoral section of their meetings, a further copy will be kept in the teachers' own red behaviour file.

Strategies for Preventing Bullying

As part of our on going commitment to the safety and welfare of our pupils we at Nutfield Church (C of E) Primary School have developed the following strategies to promote positive behaviour and discourage bullying behaviour.

Proactive strategies

- Involvement in SEAL including Anti-bullying Unit.
- Anti-Bullying week annually in November.
- PSHE/citizenship Pupil voice
- Parent information events/information
- Staff training and development for all staff
- Peer mediation (new team trained for playground)
- School Council
- Parent forums
- Collective Worship
- Achieving the Anti-Bullying Charter Mark, bronze level.
- School values
- Playground activities developed by senior MDMS and supported by whole team
- Learning Mentor regularly meet with vulnerable pupils

Reactive strategies

- PSHE/citizenship – circle time
- Restorative Justice
- Counselling by Learning Mentor
- Talktime box
- Parental involvement with the Family Link Worker
- School values

Each half term, tied in with the school value, we focus on a particular aspect of Anti-Bullying which we wish to promote in school:

 Anti Bullying Half Termly Foci
	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
Value	Community	Peace	Wisdom	Hope	Dignity	Joy
Anti-Bullying Focus	Peer Mediators	Peace Makers' Charter	Talk Time Boxes	Friendship Bench	Posters – charity organisations and support available	Random Acts of Kindness

This aims to ensure all children and staff are aware of the key resources we have available in school and how children can access help and support if they need it.

Ball games, lunchtime clubs, resources for the quiet area and trained Peer Mediators have been introduced to reduce bullying during playtimes. Areas that are hot spots are identified and fenced off, if appropriate.

Staff are trained in the restorative approach by our school champion and a PSHE Consultant has delivered training on peer mediation to our Learning Mentor. CEOPS training has been undertaken by key members of staff. Our Learning Mentor supports children who have been bullied or who bully using the restorative approach.

School Council's Peace Makers' Charter

This policy should be read in conjunction with the School Council's Anti Bullying Policy which is underpinned by the children's Peacemakers' Charter. This Charter sets out the children's vision for Nutfield Church and sets out a 'Nutfield Church Way'.

Nutfield Church Peace-Makers' Charter

We're a good school and so no one should be bullied.

Treat others as you would like to be treated and try to show others the grace that God shows to us.

All bullying will be noticed and together people will put a stop to it.

We do not think it is cool to be a bully.
At Nutfield Church we are all different and we like it that way.

Choosing to be kind is helpful and necessary.
