

Year 5 Homework letter

Friday 12th July 2019

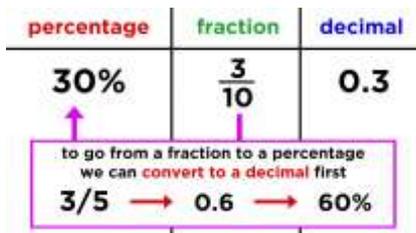

Thank you for coming to see the children's work this year at Open Evening, it was lovely to see so many of you there.

English

We have started a new project inspired by our book 'Hidden Figures' and the 50th anniversary of the moon landing. The children are going to be designing and presenting a new spaceship; they are going to be persuading me to choose theirs over another.

Maths

We have focussed on converting decimals, fractions and percentages in Maths this week. The children have persevered and have made fantastic progress.

Production

Thank you for bringing the children to support their peers in Pantastic! I was so proud of their enthusiasm and excitement. The back stage crew did a wonderful job and were a skilled technical team. Monies raised were in aid of Meningitis Research Foundation and The Epilepsy Society. A generous, £222.20 was raised. Thank you all very much for your kindness. The children were very pleased to hear that they had made a difference.

Homework

Maths homework this week is in the children's books. Linking to our Maths lessons this week, it is a set of reasoning problems to solve.

Instead of spellings this week, the children have a reading comprehension to complete. They need to read through the text and answer the questions on the sheet.

Please continue to hear your child read as often as possible.

Anti-Bullying Chartermark -Gold!

On Wednesday morning, we were visited by the Surrey Anti-Bullying Chartermark team. During the morning, the ladies spent time talking to parents and staff and reviewed the evidence we had collected over the last few years. They were particularly wowed by the children, both during formal conversations and when chatting to them on the playground. The children were confident and articulate and were a real credit to the school. The ethos of Nutfield Church shone through and I am delighted to tell you that we have achieved the Anti-Bullying Gold award! Thank you very much to all involved, particularly to the Anti-Bullying Partnership for their commitment and enthusiasm this year.
